

Science-for-policy activities with focus on climate change

Jaak Järv
Secretary General

Estonian Academy of Sciences

e-mail: jaak.jarv@ut.ee

EASAC Council meeting
2-3 December 2021

International events:

- April - The Changing Arctic, in cooperation with Academia Europaea and Norwegian Embassy (552 participants)
- June - Seminar on Energetics, in cooperation with Academies in Baltic States and Hamburg Academy (415 participants)
- November - The Gulf of Finland Science Days. conference in cooperation with the Finnish Environment Institute (SYKE) and Estonian Government (350 participants)

Events in Academy and in Academy-related organizations

- September - Reduction of the CO<sub>2</sub> Emission, Academy Standing Committee on Energy
- October - Energy turn with a focus on Fit 55 in Estonia: can it be effective, profitable, and painless at the same time? Academy Standing Committee on Energy and The Foresight Centre of the Parliament of Estonia
- October - Connections between biodiversity and climate change, Academy Standing Committee on Nature Conservation
- November - Health impact of climate crisis and panel discussion with two participants of the COP 26 Meeting, the Estonian Naturalists Society (founded in 1853).

Articles and interviews in local press:
30 titles published about climate and energy issues with involvement of Academy Members in 2021

Thank you !

